BOATING PARTY SUNDAY ON JORDAN RIVER EXPERIENCE CLOSE CALL

Pleasure Craft Privately Owned, Blown Up By Explosion
Of Motor—Boat Burns to Water's Edge; Party
Saved by Passing Boat.

On last Sunday at dusk, a party of prominent persons aboard the "Corrigan," small yacht belonging to Messrs. Roger M. Boh, Leo G. Ford, and Lucien M. Gex, had a narrow escape from death when the motor in the boat exploded, causing a fire which quickly caused all parts of the boat to become ignited and made escape from the boat a hazardous task, four of the party receiving painful and serious burns.

The "Corrigan," with Mr. and Mrs. Lucien M. Gex, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Gex, Mr. and Mrs. Leo G. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. H. Grady Perkins and Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Kergosien aboard was returning from a trip up Jordan river and was entering Watts Bayou where the boat pens are located when they were met by Benny Hille in his boat, the "Mystery," with Mrs. Hille, their oldest son, Ben, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Phillips aboard.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gex boarded the "Mystery" while the other members of the party remained aboard the "Corrigan" which weighed anchor, while Mr. Hille's boat, which had just received a new motor, made a test trip past the "Corrigan."

Cause of Explosion:

It is thought the explosion was caused by accumulated gas in the cabin and with the radio playing and all members of the party remained a most pleasant trip, the suddenness of the explosion caused most of them to jump overboard. Mr. Hille after his test trip, had boarded the "Corrigan" and was seated atop the small cabin roof just over the motor and was thrown completely from the boat into the water, and received severe burns on both feet, while Mr. Ford, Mr. Perkins and Mr. Gex received burns on the hands and arms.

After the members of the party had been transferred from the "Mystery" to their cars at the boat landing, they were rushed in to the local King's Daughters Hospital and treated and were later permitted to go to their homes, Mr. Hille and Mr. Ford receiving the most severe and painful burns.

Except for clear thinking and the experience of all members of the party who are boating enthusiasts, the accident could have been more disastrous as the point at which the boats were anchored is in deep water and all members were not able to swim. However, despite the painfulness of the burns received and the shock, it is considered most fortunate that more serious injuries and possible fatalities did not occur.

ANNOUNCING DATE OF OPENING BY ACADEMY WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 3

Letter to Parents Prescribing Uniform to Be Worn— Simplicity Keynote.

The Sisters of St. Joseph announce that St. Joseph Academy will open on September 3rd, with September 1st and 2nd as registration dates; the boarders to report Tuesday September 2nd.

The following letter has been written to all parents of the students at the convent:

Dear Parents:

Vacation will soon be at an end, and naturally you are anxious to know when school will reopen. Registration will be held September 1 and 2, and classes will be resumed September 3. All boarders are expected to report Tuesday, September 2nd.

At the close of school it was decided to change the uniform. Hence for the coming session the following will be the standard uniform for all

WAVELAND VOTES FOR GAS

ELECTION FOR PROPOSED NATURAL GAS INSTALLATION GOES OVER BIG.

Our sister city of Waveland is going to have a natural gas system of its own—the same as Bay St. Louis. And also an enlarged municipally-owned waterworks system.

At a special election held there on Tuesday, August 5, to determine whether or not the town should issue bonds in the amounts of $80,000 for gas and $125,000 for waterworks, both issues carried by overwhelming majorities.

The results of voting was given out Tuesday night, as follows:

Proposition No. 1, waterworks—89 for and 12 against.

Proposition No. 2, gas—89 for and 10 against.

There were three ballots spoiled and not counted. The bonds to be issued are revenue producing and will carry no incumbrance on property, no ad valorem tax to discharge the obligation. The bonds are to be paid by the revenues derived from both the gas and water projects.

Gas for Waveland and a major waterworks system for domestic and fire protection will both prove boosters for Waveland. The lack of gas has been a serious drawback to the town in more ways than one.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen fostered the projects, backed by the public and are to be congratulated by their success. Mayor Thos. J. Bourgeois and his associates are naturally jubilant over the success of the proposed improvements.

McComb is torn between two loves—they don't know whether to go with Uncle Sam on daylight saving time or stay with the good old I. C. railroad. The railroad has fed and clothed the town since its birth and most of the natives are dependent on it in one way or another to this day. The decision is up to Mayor Kramer. Oliver Emmerich quotes the old saying that time and tide wait not man, but says his community's waiting on the mayor.

girls attending S. J. A.

Navy blue serge skirt, pleated all around with pleats stitched down one third of the skirt; a 2 inch belt of the same material attached to the skirt. Small children may have the skirt buttoned to the blouse at the waist line, provided the buttons are visible. A plain white sport blouse with no colored trimmings of any kind will be used. A dark blue sweater and dark blue beret will complete the uniform. Models of the skirt and blouse to be used can be seen at Mauffray's.

We have made every effort to make the new uniform as simple as possible, and we hope that you will see that the uniform is made according to the regulations and that your children wear the uniform at all times. September 15 is the day designated for all children to wear the uniform.

In the past you have always cooperated with us, and we feel sure that you will show the same spirit of cooperation in this matter. We are looking forward with pleasure to seeing both you and your children at the opening of school.

THE ECHO PRINTING AND STATIONERY DEPT. OF VAST MAGNITUDE

Licensed Stationers—Stock Purchased in Large Lots To Procure Price and Goods—Shortage Fore stalled.

The business firm known as The Sea Coast Echo, individually owned, is not only in the publishing and printing business, but is a licensed stationery concern as well.

It is well known to many we deal in stationery and office supplies to the extent that we supply several of the larger business firms here.

This week The Sea Coast Echo stationery supply department received from the manufacturers one thousand coin wrappers. Perhaps largest amount to ever reach this city at one time. From this stock we supply local banks and banks in adjacent territory and to mercantile and other firms wishing to buy. However, we do not retail, but sell in boxes of a thousand lot.

We are told by users that this is quite a convenience to the users. In addition The Echo stationery department carries a supply of typewriter ribbons, which by necessity to get the price and quality as well we must buy in gross lots. We still sell the regular dollar ribbon for seventy-five cents.

Buyers tell us that is another convenience. Ribbons, however, we sell singly. And there is no necessity of any typewriter hereabouts putting out production from a ribbon that hardly prints so faint and old the ribbon in use.

The Graham Paper Company, one of the largest manufacturers in the country, will tell you for a town of this size, that The Sea Coast Echo is one of their best customers. We buy paper in case lots, in wholesale ream lots; we buy and have shipments deferred because of lack of warehouse space.

This gives not only better price but foretells the possibility of a shortage of supplies later on. Newsprint paper, the kind this is printed on, is going skyward. It will be hard to get a real good white paper to hand. Two dusters and the like will be entirely off.

We have always bought in large lots, but the reason for doing so now, and in bigger lots than ever is to avoid the probability of getting left. There is going to be a scarcity of many products now in popular use. Surely, there will be substitutes, but these will hold price.

Users of printed and other stationery, if wise, will buy now. Our prices are yet normal, and we are going to keep them so as long as possible. Our patrons are our friends, to them is due every consideration and we are going to cater to them and take care of the general public as long as possible.

The Sea Coast Echo has been serving the local business and general clientele for well nigh fifty years. We hope to continue serving them. In bigger lots and to their advantage. Remember, we are publishers, printers and stationers.

YOUNG PEOPLES' PARTY.

On Wednesday evening, Roger Boh and Gaines Kergosien entertained jointly at a dance in the home of Gaines' Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Kergosien when a large group of the school set home on vacation, and a number of summer visitors enjoyed this delightful party.

The young people enjoyed dancing until midnight by a record player and Mrs. Kergosien and Mrs. Boh served refreshments of punch, cake and sandwiches throughout the evening.

RED CROSS TO UNITE FORCES

With Government In Various Branches of Endeavor Meeting To Be Called

It is planned shortly to have a meeting with the idea of cooperating the efforts of government and Red Cross and civilian defense organizations and the meeting will be called by the local Chapter of Red Cross.

While Red Cross and governmental units are independent of each other in supervision and control, and each is responsible for its own financial commitments, they will necessarily work in close harmony to meet the need caused by disaster, and local communities, through their local government and Red Cross Chapter will meet the problem of disaster to the extent of local resources.

The work of the local Chapter continues on and the Production Department is making nice progress with its second quota of knitting, crocheting and sewing.

GEORGE H. PENN, SR. FORMER RESIDENT, DIES AT ORLEANS HOME

Had Resided in Bay Saint Louis on North Beach a Number of Years.

George H. Penn, Sr., 72, a resident of Bay St. Louis on North Beach for many years, died at his home in New Orleans Tuesday of this week, following a stroke. The news of his sudden passing was received in Bay St. Louis as a shock and occasions much sorrow, his wife, two daughters and one son well known, all prominent in New Orleans business and social circles.

MEETING OF LOCAL SCOUT EXECUTIVES AT HOTEL FRIDAY LAST

First Aid Training School To Be Held September—Sea Scouts From New Orleans to Camp Here

August 12-14.

On last Friday evening at Hotel Reed, an executive meeting of the leaders of the local Boy Scout troops was held with Field Representative Steve Kenney in attendance and the following present: Very Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch, district chairman, Messrs. T. T. Robin, J. T. McCaleb, Andy Anderson, A. Adamson, Henry Osmach, Carl Arnold, Fred Fayard, Wm. Staehle, H. W. Lettsen, L. S. Elliott.

The first aid training school for scouts and executives will be in during the month of September.

Mr. Kenney announced that beginning next Tuesday, August 12, a party of six scout leaders and thirty sea scouts from New Orleans, will arrive on the Coast aboard two ships and accompanied by the Coast Guard Dorothy M. and will most likely anchor off the St. Stanislaus College pier. The boys will camp on the grounds in the rear of Our Lady of the Gulf Church and will remain there through Wednesday night, and will be entertained by the people of Bay St. Louis. On Thursday, they will return to New Orleans, arriving there on Friday when a large dance will be given them at the Southern Yacht Club in conclusion of their activities.

This cruise is always one of the most looked-forward to activities of the sea scouts and affords the opportunity for excellent training and experience.

A PROPOSAL

to declare what the style of the law is. Marshall, who now is a member of Congress, has been a noted as critic of the nation needs of patriotic men and women and confidence of those who believe in the way of life.

There is no substitute for loyalty. Flag-waving, public demonstrations and community-wide expressions of solidarity do not replace the individual faithful upon whom successful government depends. As a citizen it is essential for you to make your contribution to the United States of America.

HEAT VERSUS PHILOSOPHY.

WHEN the thermometer climbs above 90 degrees, one may be excused for questioning whether the presence of watermelons and peaches are enough to justify the heat.

The delights of the bathing beaches, including the exquisite visions that attract the male eye, do not necessitate such severity upon the part of King Sol.

It may help some citizens to contemplate the scientific fact that the Sun, at this time of the year, is further away from the earth than in the dead of winter. Just imagine how much hotter it would be if the mammoth ball of fire was closer to us!

Even the thought has a tendency to cool us off. A tendency, however, is not quite sufficient. Maybe, if we reflect, that in about five months we will be grumbling as much about the cold weather, we may pull through.

TWO-WAY CARRIER PIGEONS.

IT is quite probable that most Americans do not know that the Army Signal Corps maintains a Pigeon Communication division, but, just the same, it has developed an important defense against blitzkrieg tactics which attempt to paralyze armed forces by destroying all communication systems.

Crack signal corps pigeon experts have accomplished the successful development of carrier pigeons which will streak through the air at a mile-a-minute rate to carry a message then make an immediate return trip to the original sender.

This is considered important because in the melle of combat, communication is vitally necessary and the enemy may jam all radio dispatches. The new pigeons will fly from the commander's headquarters to a particular unit, and return, carrying messages both ways.

TWO BASEBALL STARS.

ROBERT Moses Grove finally won the victory that put him among the elect of baseball by virtue of winning three hundred ball games. This left-handed twirler has had a long and creditable career and fans throughout the country will be glad that he has mounted the hurdle.

While passing plaudits to Robert Moses, it might not be amiss to record the fact that the New York Yankees have another batter to replace Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio recently broke a long standing record by batting safely in 56 consecutive ball games.

If you don't think that is something to talk about, ask any ball player who has ever been at the plate, facing a pitcher who had something on the ball.

A HERO OF PEACE.

NOT many of the people of Hancock county have heard of Frederick L. Truax and yet all of us are in debt to him.

This young man recently died from the effects of a new drug which he and other students of the University of Rochester medical school were attempting to perfect for the treatment of gall bladder diseases.

Only 25 years of age, he gave up his life in the glorious effort to develop something to help suffering humanity. In the era of war and trouble that afflicts the modern world it is fine to know that there are heroes of peace, no less great than the heroes of war, even if rarely as well known.

ARMY MUST BE AVAILABLE.

A N army whose movements are confined to parade grounds and safe areas is of little service to a nation in peril.

The vast army that the United States is training will serve the interests of the nation only if it is available for use wherever the security of the United States is challenged.

The problems of humanity would be much simpler if all of us understood the problems of other people.

Modern industry has developed machines to do all housework except make up beds and it won't be long before this will be attended to.

There is no asset as valuable for Bay St. Louis as community cooperation, the general concern for the common good and the common concern for the general welfare.

World peace, we are afraid, will have to wait until men and women, all over the world, are willing to cooperate with each other and share the economic benefits of nature.

Because of the constant advance in the price of material essential to the production of newspapers, the New Orleans Item has announced the discontinuance of its Sunday edition and an advance in the price of the local day edition. This now leaves New Orleans with only one Sunday morning paper while formerly there were three. We suggest to the disinterested one of the Sunday morning papers to collect contributions from stamp collectors and the like.

We do not know, and we would hesitate to suggest, what any man woman or child should do in the present emergency. We have not the intelligence to outline a program for all to follow. We modestly recommend that loyal Americans consider their present condition and the plight of their country and then make some positive contribution to the common good.

Do not mislead yourself. You cannot make a positive contribution to the cause of civilization in the face of great danger without some personal sacrifice. If you have any plan in mind which enables you to escape the pressure of world conditions, you can put it aside because it will not work. You cannot contribute at a profit.

GOOD TRAINING WITHOUT WEAPONS.

SMART-ALBC critics of the defense program like the jibe at the training of soldiers without modern weapons and the glib comment has a tendency to fool some people.

The War Department points out that the "tactical employment" of a weapon is more important than its "technical manipulation" and asserts that "little training value is lost by the substitution of a stove pipe for a mortar or an oak for a machine gun."

While the army has expanded faster than the manufacture of weapons, all units have sufficient weapons for training and the soldiers have learned how to handle their basic arms. In training the weapons are not fired, but the soldiers learn how to select the proper position for the guns, which is the "crucial factor."

The Germans practiced their soldiers with simulated weapons as late as 1938, knowing well the truth of the War Department's saying that an imitation gun, well placed in maneuvers, may be better than a real weapon that is sited in an exposed position.

BACKS UP ITS GENERALS.

ALLOT of nonsense has been spoken and written about the disciplinary action recently taken by Lieut. Gen. Ben Lear, who rigidly punished 350 soldiers near Memphis, Tenn., for their conduct in shooting at girls in shorts on a golf course.

The way some Congressmen talked, you would expect Congress to pass an act immediately upholding the right of the soldiers to shoot, as they please, at all women that they meet. This would invite improper conduct everywhere and give the go-ahead signal to small groups of men in uniform, which would inevitably produce civilian displeasure and cause serious criticism of men in uniform.

The most common-sense pronouncement on the whole affair came from Under-Secretary of War Patterson, when asked if the War Department approved of the action taken by Gen. Lear. Said Mr. Patterson: "The War Department backs up its generals." That is the only way to have an army or to develop soldiers.

BROTHER PETER RE-APPOINTED.

NOT many of the people of Hancock county have heard of Frederick L. Truax and yet all of us are in debt to him.

This young man recently died from the effects of a new drug which he and other students of the University of Rochester medical school were attempting to perfect for the treatment of gall bladder diseases.

ROTARY LEADS IN DEFENSE WORK.

BAY St. Louis Rotary Club took the initiative in Hancock towards the project of accumulating discarded and other pieces of aluminum as a contribution to the work of defense. How successful has this work proven, we are informed, has been in process over the country. Grouped with the local collection there will be considerable collection of the now precious metal and this, in proportion, will continue as Bay St. Louis and Hancock county's share.

Bay Rotary Club is always first in every enterprise and we are glad to note such a live branch are never found lacking when the public need demands.

DEATH OF JOSEPH P. MCGINN.

MUCH sorrow is expressed on the occasion of the passing of Joseph P. McGinn, who during the fifty years of his life, had spent the major portion of it in Bay St. Louis. McGinn, as he was affectionately called by the citizens, knew him both in the Mississippi Coast and in New Orleans, where he resided during the later years, was held in esteem by all who knew him. He was a man of courage and integrity and his cheerful disposition won him many friends. It is the desire of all who make our living in the profession who contribute most to the welfare and happiness of our home town.

Because of the constant advance in the price of material essential to the production of newspapers, the New Orleans Item has announced the discontinuance of its Sunday edition and an advance in the price of the local day edition. JOSEPH P. M'GINN
FORMER BAY RESIDENT,
DIES AT ORLEANS

Aged 50 Years—Spent Earlier Life Here—Graduate Of St. Stanislaus.

This community was shocked beyond expression Saturday when the news was flashed from New Orleans that Joseph P. McGinn, former resident of Bay St. Louis for many years, had died.

He passed away Saturday morning, at 4:30 o'clock, at his family dwelling, 2707 General Pershing street, after a chronic illness of long standing. Recently his ailment took a flare and his condition became grave until the end.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon in New Orleans, with interment in the family, burial place, Greenwood Cemetery, at 3:30 o'clock, with religious services from the church of Our Lady of Lourdes. Mr. McGinn was a devout Catholic, a member of Knights of Columbus, and had always been actively affiliated with the Catholic church.

He was a native of New Orleans, aged 50 years, but came to Bay St. Louis with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McGinn, shortly thereafter and remained here until his adult life had been reached. He was a graduate of St. Stanislaus College, held several important positions here, the more prominent and longest, however, was with the Imperial Naval Stores Company.

He is survived by his widow, the former Sarah Leonard, and was the father of J. Leonard and Garret Francis McGinn, one of the two sons who reside in Kellar avenue.

Other immediate survivors are his sisters, Mrs. Esther Taylor, Miss Rosetta McGinn and Miss Anna McGinn, and one brother, Samuel McGinn, all former Bay St. Louis residents, and who have the deepest sympathy of the community, a number of local residents attending the funeral.

Joseph P. McGinn was exceedingly popular with all who knew him. A man of sterling qualities and whose passing removes one who had filled a place in the world as one possessed of all qualities of a high class citizen. Comparatively a young man, his loss is felt all the more.

ORTTE THEATER
THUR-FRI.—AUG. 14-15
"BUCK PRIVATES"

"I WANTED WINGS DUE TO LAND SOON AT THE A. & G. THEATER

The thrilling story of the training of America's birdmen told against the background of an exciting tale of adventure and romance, will be viewed when Paramount's sweeping epic of the air, "I Wanted Wings," is at the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday.

Starring Ray Milland, William Holden, Wayne Morris and Brian Donlevy, the film features in its impressive cast that sensational newcomer, Veronica Lake, and lovely Constance Moore. Directed by Arthur Hornblow and directed by Mitchell Leisen, the new air drama promises to be probably this year's most important film. Certainly not since "Wings," which many of us still remember vividly, has another aviation picture taken off from Hollywood with so much excited advance talk as "Wanted Wings." Nor has any previous picture had better opportunity for packing authentic air thrills into celluloid.

Made with the complete cooperation of the Army Air Corps at Randolph, Kelly and March Fields, the new film takes us through the training of America's air cadets, as it tells the personal stories of three aviation trainees and the women in their lives. The men who want wings are Milland, Holden and Morris, and the women, of course, are Veronica Lake and Constance Moore. In the picture, we understand, Miss Lake, who has come to be known as the "blonde bombshell," caused the crash of a flying Fortress, after devastating a few human hearts. Constance Moore plays the role of a photographer assigned to cover an air field for a magazine.

Air-minded as we have been made during the past few years, due to international events and our own feverish efforts to build up an impregnable sky defense, "I Wanted Wings" offers us what is probably the most exciting and fascinating topic available for screen stories.

MARY EDWARDS, ST. GEORGE STREET DIES.

Mary Edwards, (Colored), of Bay St. Louis, passed away Sunday, July 27, at 6:05 P.M., at her residence, 330 St. George street. Funeral services were held Thursday, July 31, at 4:00 p.m., from St. Rose de Lima church, Father Holken, S. V. D., officiating.

The Edwards family appreciate and thank each and everyone especially Father J. H. Holken, S. V. D., and Dr. C. L. Horton for their attention and kindness.

To The High School Graduates in Hancock County:

I shall be in the office of Supt. K. C. McCarty Friday afternoon, August 1st, at 2:00 o'clock to interview prospective students for Pearl River Junior College. I hope to meet all those who are interested in entering college this fall.

Roseland Russell, Brian Abercrombie, Virginia Bruce in "Hired Wife" Ortte Theater

Three of Hollywood's leading personalities, Rosalind Russell, Brian Abercrombie and Virginia Bruce, have the starring roles in Universal's "Hired Wife," which comes to the Ortte Theater Sunday and Monday.

Miss Russell, who has become very well known as a comedienne in such pictures as "The Women" and "His Girl Friday," again is brought to the screen in this type of characterization. Individually, she says it's the sort of acting she prefers.

Role is Departure
Abercrombie's role, on the other hand, is declared to be a distinct departure from the serious characters he played in "Vigil in the Night" and "My Son, My Son."

In direct contrast to her co-stars, Miss Bruce has one of the few "straight" roles in the entire picture. Long known as one of Hollywood's leading beauties, Virginia is said to have been given an excellent chance to capitalize upon this beauty in her role as a glamorous model.

Additional comedy, it is announced, is dispensed by Robert Benchley, the only man in Hollywood who can claim to be proficient as an author and dashing young John Carroll, who commentator. He is a success in each of these fields.

An added combination of romance and comedy is delivered by the young actor, playwright, columnist, critic and further complicates the intrigue already surrounding the three stars.

GulfPort Doctor Killed
Wednesday A. M. In Truck Collision.

Dr. E. E. Richardson, 68, retired chiropractor, was fatally injured Wednesday morning of this week at Gulfport when his automobile and an express truck collided on the beach highway.

Albert Lacombe, 33, resident of New Orleans, was driver of the truck, jumped in time to save himself from serious injury, although he was greatly shaken.

The victim, Dr. Richardson, native of West Virginia, moved to the Mississippi Gulf Coast in 1924. He was a retired chiropractor. His widow, two sons and a daughter survive.

It was stated automobile accidents on the gulf coast since Sunday have brought the death toll to four.

John Sharp Williams, III, Insurance Commissioner, has just filed the biennial report to the Legislature for that department, as required by statute. It shows that for the biennium ending June 30, 1941, that department collected a total of $1,688,422.54. True collections came from the following sources: Premium taxes $1,367,372.13; privilages, taxes $249,722.50; certificate fees $40,882; filing fees $8,601.50 and miscellaneous fees $62.40.

Veterans Pensions

The House has passed a bill to increase the rate of pension for permanent and total non-service-connected disability from $30 to $40 per month. The bill also amended the Veterans Regulations so as to provide that a similar pension for any veteran sixty-five years of age who served for ninety days and whose income was less than $1000 if unmarried or $2500 if married. Whether the Senate will act favorably upon the bill is still a question.

Soil Survey

Each member of Congress is allocated a limited number of copies of the Soil Surveys of the several counties of his District. These copies are much in demand, and the Members have some difficulty in supplying them. At the time of the death of the lamented Pat Harrison, he had on hand a number of copies of these surveys. Mrs. Harrison, in winding up Senator Harrison's affairs and closing his office, with characteristic thoughtfulness turned these over to us. These little volumes are very enlightening and helpful to anyone desiring first-hand information on the types of soil of any particular county. Anyone interested in a copy of this valuable little booklet may address us at Washington, specifying the county in which he is interested, and we will be glad to send it postpaid.

Mrs. P. W. Muller has gone to New Orleans where she will visit for a week with her daughters there. Miss Gloria Curet is presently visiting in Bay St. Louis at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Blaize, Jr. This vacation trip was a revelation to him as he says, considering the growth and expansion of these places and specially how business is flourishing. This principally applies to Houston, he said, for this is one of the more prosperous sections of the United States just now, barring defense preparation activities just a healthy and permanent growth of a big city. However, he said, it was good to get back to New Orleans time and the latter particularly more so since we are in such active touch with that city. Computers find it difficult. The greater inconvenience rises from the fact stores and other places close earlier of evenings. How it will work out and how long remains to be seen.
